FREE TO GROW

"What most need is not more individual attention from people who have nothing to do but attend to them, but a chance to grow in and into a society they can understand and trust and in which they may have a chance to play a serious and useful part."

John Holt, in Harper's for August 1972 has written this concerning needs of children, growing into life. Apply it also to youth.

The concept is that of the right start, a well planned lift-off. Once shown the objectives and procedures in a certain phase of studies, a learner thrives by working through a course that is seldom interfered with or coached while in process. To do the learner's efforts step by step makes Jack a dull boy, always in need of individual prodding.

Freedom to forge ahead with tasks works well in Christian Endeavor. An old and tested principle achieves results, when we prepare well, pray for guidance, enlist comrades in our action—and learn by doing.—B.H.

1972 COUNCIL WRAP-UP

presentations on "Come Alive and Grow," "The Challenge of Key 73," "The Source of Our Motivation," "Is-land Endeavorers," "Regional Christian Endeavor Work," "State Success Stories," and "Christian Endeavor — An Effective Program," were special features of the 1972 Executives' Program Council. Over eighty Christian Endeavor leaders from all parts of the United States and Canada met November 30 - December 3, 1972, in Columbus, Ohio.

A highlight of the meetings was a township banquet Friday evening with Janice V. Tyrol of Pennsylvania, first-place winner in the 1972 Christian Youth Witness Program, as speaker and Lynn Hudson of West Virginia, the second-place winner, providing special music. Arch J. McQuillan of Pennsylvania, assistant to the president, served as master of ceremonies. Banquet theme and decorations stressed ways to witness, pointing to the Key 73 evangelism thrust on the North American continent in 1973.

The sessions opened Thursday morning with devotions led by Mike Hub, Washington State Union president. Devotions Friday morning were led by Rev. William S. Ryan, youth leader of the Evangelical Congregational Church, and Saturday by Larry W. Clark, Ohio Union president. The Sunday morning closing worship and communion service was conducted by Bishop Charles H. Foggie of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church.

The delegates enjoyed a visit to the Headquarters of the International Society at 1221 East Broad Street, Columbus, on Thursday afternoon. Dr. LaVerne H. Boss of Michigan, president of the International Society, conducted an orientation session for first-time delegates. Following a get-acquainted dinner Thursday evening, plans for the 52nd International Convention in Evansville, July 2-6, 1973, were presented by Major L. Snow, vice-president in charge of the Great Lakes Region.

Special presentations were given Friday by Dr. Paul Benjamin of Lincoln (Illinois) Christian Seminary, author of The Growing Congregation on "Come Alive and Grow" and "The Challenge of Key 73." Saturday evening Bishop Foggie spoke on "The Source of Our Motivation."

The role of the Youth Assembly was outlined by its chairman, Lynn

Stanley of Missouri. Youth delegates under the direction of Miss Stanley were in charge of the Consecration Meeting and SHOW AND SELL announcements to publicize literature and supplies available through the Publishing Department.

Dr. Clyde W. Meadows, president of the World's Union, gave a visual report of Christian Endeavor in Europe which included Essen, Germany, site of the 17th World's Convention in 1974. Rev. Clair E. Beatty, Carlisle, Ohio, outlined plans for Christian Endeavor Week January 28-February 4, 1973, and suggested changes in the bylaws being considered by the Bylaws Revision Committee which he chairs.

Three periods were spent in intensive preliminary work on the 1975 Junior and Youth topic annotations and the 1975 Young Adult and Adult Topics and Summaries. Materials prepared by the delegates will be turned over to editors who will prepare the final topics and annotations for these age levels.

A challenge to witness as part of the 1973 Christian Youth Witness Program was given by Rev. Charles W. Barner, general secretary of the International Society. The Albert H. Diebold Awards total over $1,300 in cash, grants for attending the Evansville Convention, award plaques, and certificates for the winning individuals and societies. Deadline for entries is February 15. Mr. Barner also stressed that the International Society will hang 1,300 Christian Endeavor outdoor posters encouraging people to attend church as part of the Key 73 witnessing program.

Chairman of the 1972 Council was Rev. Roger D. Vander Kolk of Michigan. P. Raymond Bartholomew, president of the Pennsylvania Union, was the song leader and Rev. David Jackson, youth director of the Church of the United Brethren in Christ, served as pianist.

Arlin Van Dyke, Illinois Union president, succeeds Rev. Roger Vander Kolk as chairman. Vice-chairmen are Ronnie B. Harby of Tennessee and Mrs. Olin F. Badeaux of Tennessee; Lynn M. McKnight, also of Tennessee, was reelected secretary. New officers were installed by Wood Dunn, past president of the International Society.

Elected to membership on the Educational Committee are: Timothy Kribs, chairman (Oregon), Rev. Cameron W. Jackson (Ohio), Rev. David G. Jackson (Indiana), Mrs. Ray Pulsifer (Oregon), Rev. William S. Sandman (Pennsylvania), Judith N. Sanders (Texas), Mrs. Emmie F. Smith (Washington D. C.), Rev. Roger Vander Kolk (Michigan), and Arlin Van Dyke (Illinois). Age-level interest area directors reelected (who are all members of the Educational Committee) include: Junior, Miss Sandra Pulsifer; Junior High, Mrs. Pulsifer; Senior High-Young People's, Mr. David Jackson; and Young Adult and Adult, Mrs. Smith.

Dates for the 1973 meeting of the Council are November 29-December 2 in Columbus, Ohio. The 1974 dates are November 28-December 1.

COUNCIL WORKING GROUPS (opposite page, top to bottom) include those preparing 1975 Junior topics led by Judith Sanders; Youth topic writers led by David Jackson and Louise Pulsifer; those at work on Young Adult and Adult topics, headed by Emmie Smith; and the 1972 Educational Committee with Chairman Timothy Kribs at the podium and members seated in front. Seated at head table is Roger Vander Kolk, 1972 Council Chairman.

Phase Two of Key 73

Calling Our Continent to the Word of God

Two Bible study emphases are suggested for Key 73 participating groups early in 1973. First comes preparatory Bible study: groups of Christians gathering around the Word of God for personal challenge to repentance and a quickened enthusiasm for evangelistic outreach. These groups may be specially formed for the occasion, or they may be existing church groups which accept the challenge of the Key 73 program.

The second Bible study emphasis is evangelistic: through morning coffee hours, home Bible study groups, coffee house study groups, and "backyard" study classes for children, those interested are invited to join already formed study groups to investigate together the relevance of God's Word to each of man's needs. The 40 million children in America without any formal church instruction, and the growing number of pagan adults, are all subjects who need to be called to the Word of God.

An important part of this last emphasis is Scripture distribution — not just handing out a great tonnage of literature, but giving special invitations along with the literature to join a particular Bible study group. Personal concern for individuals and the conservation of spiritual gains is an important part of Key 73. A special Lenten Bible study, "Meet the Master," is suggested in the Key 73 Congregational Resource Book.

It is in Scripture distribution and Bible study that cooperative, community-wide efforts will bear the greatest fruit. Assistance in planning major metropolitan distribution programs may be secured from the leading Bible distribution organizations. The Resource Book also provides valuable suggestions.

It is the sharpened Word, through the quickening of the Spirit, which will call our continent to Christ in 1973.

Essen 1974

The next World's Convention will be held in Essen, Germany, July 24-28, 1974, with meetings centering in the modern "Gruga-Halle." Housing will be in private homes, the Christian Endeavor Holiday Home at Hattingen or the Deaconess House at Velbert, or at local youth hostels. Registration fee is $3 U.S. for students, $10 U.S. for all others; send to Columbus Headquarters.

Bible Lands Trip — Surprise Gift!

Rev. and Mrs. Dennis Madeira, young pastor and his wife of the Westmoor Church of Christ, Kingston, Pennsylvania, were surprised and thrilled Christmas Eve when the congregation presented them with a trip to the Bible Lands April 9-23 with the Christian Endeavor tour party. The trip is a "thank you" to the Madeiras who have worked beyond the call of duty in keeping the church functioning and helping members following the June 1972 flood in the Wilkes Barre area.

The Bible Lands Tour includes visits to Greece, Egypt, Lebanon, Syria and Israel, ending with Easter Sunday in Jerusalem. Tour host is Dr. Clyde W. Meadows. Write to Rev. Charles W. Barner, International Society tour director, for details; a few places are still available at press time.

Meet Suzanne Barton

President of the Texas Union 1972-73 is Suzanne Barton of Dallas, a member of the Pleasant Grove Christian Church. An Endeavorer since she was nine, she previously held society, district, and state offices, including 2nd and 1st vice-president and associate president of the Texas Union. Suzanne received her B.S. and M.A. degrees in Speech from the University of Texas at Austin. As a teacher of Speech, she taught at Texas as a graduate student, in high school, and is now employed as a lecturer at the University of Texas at Arlington.

Samuel E. Morgart, Jr. — A Tribute

On December 15 Samuel E. Morgart, Jr., of Steubenville, Ohio, was killed in an explosion while working at a new Weirton Steel facility. A past president of the Ohio Union, he had held many Christian Endeavor positions and was president of the Tri-State Union (Ohio, Pennsylvania, and West Virginia) at the time of his death. He is survived by his wife Shirley and two children, Thomas and Shirl Ann. Tom was ordained to the Christian ministry at North River Avenue Church of Christ Sunday, December 31.

We join Rev. Charles F. Russell, former Ohio Union general secretary, in this tribute: "Never have I seen a more dedicated Christian and Christian Endeavor leader than Sam Morgart. Sam has now physically departed from our midst, but his spiritual heritage, being Christ-centered as it was, shall continue to bear fruit for a long time to come."

ENDEAVORERS IN ACTION

February 15 Deadline Nears

Entries in the 1973 Christian Youth Witness Program must be postmarked by February 15. Individuals and societies are urged to enter Christian witness projects accomplished during the past year to compete for $1,325 in cash and grants to attend the Evansville Convention. Winners will be announced April 9; awards will be presented at the convention in Evansville, Indiana, July 2-6. Details are available from the International Society. Hurry . . . deadline is February 15!

Blanket North America

Goal of the 1973 Outdoor Poster Program is to blanket North America with Christian Endeavor Outdoor Posters. Of 332 poster companies contacted, 100 have already responded and requested 857 posters which will be displayed during January and February. To date $1,412 has been received to cover the cost of 283 posters at $5 each; individuals, societies, unions, and other groups are urged to make contributions to raise the balance of $2,870 needed to cover the cost of the 574 additional posters already shipped. The poster companies are contributing thousands of dollars in space and posting fees; Endeavorers are urged to send contributions for one or more posters at once to Columbus headquarters.

In the Spotlight

Two Endeavorers are in the spotlight for their accomplishments: Archie Griffin and Peter Paulsen.

Archie Griffin, active in the society at Bethel A.M.E. Church, Columbus, Ohio, is a star freshman fullback at SHARING was an important part of the November 18 Thanksgiving Praise Breakfast for Franklin County (Ohio) Endeavorers at St. Paul A.M.E. Church, Columbus. Ohio State University. Early in the 1972 season he gained 239 yards by rushing to set a new OSU record; this rated a full page in Sports Illustrated. Congratulations to an outstanding 18-year-old Endeavorer!

Rev. Peter Paulsen is media coordinator in the Office of Promotion and Communications of the Reformed Church in America in New York City. A graduate of Hope College and New Brunswick Seminary, he credits a youthful religious experience with Christian Endeavor for turning his mind toward the ministry. His work at denominational headquarters includes writing and producing TV, radio, and multimedia shows.

1972 HONOR ROLL

Societies, unions, and other groups which enrolled during 1972 in the annual Christian Endeavor Roll Call are listed here. Each organization received an enrollment certificate. Those contributing $100 or more received a gold seal certificate; red seal certificates were sent indicating gifts of $50 or more and blue seals showing a contribution of at least $15.

For the first time the Honor Roll shows the number of years each group has continuously supported the work of the International Society by making a financial contribution. Many groups have given in additional years, but do not have a continuous record. Groups are arranged alphabetically by states and provinces; the number of years is shown in parentheses.

Top honors for continuous giving go to the Senior Christian Endeavor Society of Nineteenth Street Baptist Church, Washington, D. C., which has given each year since 1946, a total of 27 years. A close second are the Christian Endeavor Societies of Westmoor Church of Christ, Kingston, Pennsylvania, who boast a record of 26 years. Among the unions, the Texas Union has the enviable record of 21 years, with Golden Rule Union of Washington, D.C., and the Adult Alumni Department of the New Jersey Union following next, each with a 20 year record. Among the other groups, the First Evangelical Congregational Church of Easton, Pennsylvania, is in first position for longevity with a 9 year total.

IN MEMORIAM CARROLL MARYOTT WRIGHT

Tribute by Dr. Clyde W. Meadows
World's Union President

A stalwart leader of the Christian Endeavor movement has been called to his heavenly reward. Carroll Maryott Wright bridged the years through the administration of the national and international Christian Endeavor movement from that of the founder, Dr. Francis E. Clark, through the long and vigorous years of the presidency of Dr. Daniel A. Poling, to the present.

Carroll came up through the ranks, having distinguished himself as a Christian Endeavorer through his organizing genius in his home city and state, Baltimore, Maryland. He first came to International Headquarters in Boston in 1919 and served in a most commendable way as a full-time employee of the movement for 28 years and continued to serve as a volunteer worker until the time of his death, Saturday, December 16, 1972.

He was a financial wizard, which was demonstrated in his leadership as financial secretary and treasurer of the International Society during the depression years. He was called back in recent years to serve as chairman of the Finance Committee and made frequent trips from his home in Florida at his own expense to share in the Finance and Executive Committee meetings as late as 1971. He was the executive secretary and treasurer of the World's Christian Endeavor Union from 1941 to 1947, and a life trustee of the International Society until the time of death.

Carroll Wright was a close friend and associate of Dr. Daniel A. Poling, not only serving for Christ and the church with him in Christian Endeavor but later as director of public relations for the Christian Herald Association 1947-57 and resident director of Christian Herald's Memorial Home Community, Penney Farms, Florida, 1957-70.

It was my privilege and honor to know and work with this man of God through more than twenty-five years. He was precise and thorough, but always exhibited a warm, friendly spirit with a fine sense of humor. He was a good example of the product of Christian Endeavor. May the Lord bless his memory to our good and the advancement of the work "for Christ and the Church" that he loved and served.

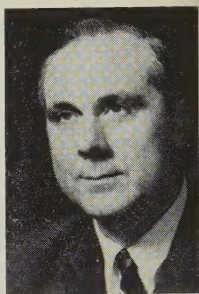

Mr. Wright is survived by his wife, Gertrude Patriquin Wright, two daughters and a son, three sisters and a brother, seven grandchildren, and three great-grandchildren. Personal messages to the family may be sent to Mrs. Wright at 520 St. Johns Avenue, Green Cove Springs, Florida 32043.

Evansville Feature: Age-Group Seminars

Program innovations for the International Christian Endeavor Convention in Evansville, Indiana, July 2-6, 1973, include a presentation each morning of the daily theme: evangelism, citizenship, stewardship, or worship. This will be followed by age-group seminars which will involve delegates in "learn by doing" experiences.

Clyde Sherk, chairman of the Evansville Program Committee, has announced that Dr. Paul Benjamin will make the Tuesday theme presentation on evangelism. A member of the Key 73 Executive Committee, Dr. Benjamin has written books on "Christian Growth," "His Disciple," and "The Growing Congregation." He has also directed over 200 programs of church

DR. PAUL BENJAMIN is professor of New Testament and Church Growth at Lincoln Christian Seminary, Lincoln, Illinois. Active in Christian Endeavor in Indiana, he was

LOOK AT IT THIS WAY...

Mexico --- Neighbor to the South

By Dr. LaVerne H. Boss, President

International Society of Christian Endeavor

Do you know that the International Society of Christian Endeavor is actually the Christian Endeavor societies of North America and as such a part of the World's Christian Endeavor Union? Frequently the title "International Society of Christian Endeavor" causes someone to impose the meaning of the World's Union upon the International Society and to think of these two groups as the same organization. The International Society (of North America) is really Christian Endeavorers in Canada, Mexico, and the United States. All Christian Endeavor activities on the North American continent are part of the International Society. Actually, Canada and Mexico have national unions functioning within the framework of the International Society.

Recently it was my great pleasure to represent both the International Society and the World's Union at the 100th anniversary of the National Presbyterian Church of Mexico. This church body enthusiastically supports the total Christian Endeavor program in Mexico. Nearly 10,000 youth and adults from throughout Mexico came together in Mexico City October 22-29 to give thanks to God for His goodness, review past accomplishments, and plan for their second century of service. It was Endeavorers who carried the flaming "Antorcha de la Fe Cristiana" to Mexico to begin the conference. I can assure you it was a real thrill to bring greetings, lead a discussion group, and have opportunity to present Christian Endeavor and its program. I saw many youth at the convention whose lives were Christ-centered and committed to Him; frequently I heard testimonies by youth of what God has done and is continuing to do in their lives. I had several conferences with youth leaders regarding closer cooperation and ties between English-speaking Americans and Canadians and our Spanish-speaking neighbors from Mexico.

One thing that thrilled me was the final session on Sunday evening when several hundred youthful Christian Endeavorers conducted a pre-session hymn singing for the thousands in the huge auditorium. Again it proves that in Christ there is a "oneness" — there is no south or north and Christians can have fellowship together in Him.

Would you like to become better acquainted with your Christian neighbors to the south? You won't regret it. There is an opportunity for Christian Endeavorers in the United States and Canada to develop pen pals in Mexico. If you are interested, send me your name and address and I will send them to Esther Macias, president of the Mexican Intermediate (high school) Union, and you will be paired with an Endeavorer from Mexico.
